are roomy, portable, orderly, secure, convenient, sightly. The great convenience of a Globe Safe to the busy man who hurriedly places important papers, documents, records, books, etc., into it for protection against fire and prying eyes, before leaving his office, entirely overshadows the comparatively small cost for safe and sections. Catalogues upon request. Agents for Barre.

William Preston returned to his home in Springfield, Mass., last night, after passing the holidays with acquaintances in the city.

W. T. Calder of the firm of Mutch & Calder has returned home, after spending several days in Montreal, P. Q., on business.

Miss Lena Barberi left the city this morning for Boston, where she will begin a course in instrumental music at the New England conservatory.

Plan to give your children a college education. A Christmas Club account carried from year to year will be a great help along this line. Barre Savings Bank & Trust Co.

Miss Elizabeth Jenkins, who has been passing the holiday season at her home in Presque Isle, Me., arrived in the city last evening to resume her duties as a member of the faculty at Goddard seminary.

Miss Lewmna Ricker of Tremont street left the city to-day for Middlebury, where she is to take up her studies at Middlebury college, after having been detained at home by illness since early autumn.

Thomas Carroll, jr., of North Main street left the city last evening on an extended western trip in the interest of Brown & Carroll, Depot square granite manufacturers. Mr. Carroll's immediate destination is Akron, O., although he will visit St. Paul, Minn., and Kansas City before returning to Barre.

The state board of health has tested the milk from the W. F. Shepard farm and reports as follows: Total solids 12.7 (standard 11.75); solids not fat 8.7 (standard 8.5); fat 4 (standard 3.25). The state board also reports the milk clean. This report shows the milk to be above standard in every test.—adv.

Frederick Moody of Toronto, Ont., returned to his home to-day, after passing several days in the city as the guest of Dr. Howard H. Reid of South Main street. Mr. Moody is a non-commissioned officer in the Canadian infantry and expects to leave within a few weeks for the Bermudas, where with other British recruits he is to pass some time in training before joining the next Canadian overseas expedition.

Conductor Austin Emery of St. Albans arrived in the city Saturday to take charge of the passenger trains over the Barre branch, relieving Charles Bashaw, another spare conductor, who has returned to St. Albans. The condition of James J. Kanaly, who has been detained from railroad duty by an attack of rheumatism for the past two months, is slowly improving. Mr. Kanaly has been able to discard his cane and can move about the house quite freely.

Wilbur Rice, a native of Barre, who was called here to attend the funeral of his father, Isaac D. Rice, whose death occurred in Springfield last Tuesday, is passing several days at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Bishop of 167 Washington street. The present occasion is Mr. Rice's first visit to Barre in 21 years. He left town as a young man and sometime afterward went to Altoona, Pa., where he is now engaged as the representative of a mausoleum firm. Some years ago he procured a patent on a mausoleum and after selling his rights to a syndicate, his services as a salesman were retained.

Mrs. John Patterson of Eastern avenue has been treating her friends lately to strawberry preserves which her mother put up 57 years ago, and which have lost none of their toothsome during all these intervening years. It was Christmas day when Mrs. Patterson opened the preserves and her friends can testify that the 57 years had only tended to make the delicacy of a richer flavor. The strange thing about it is that the champagne bottle in which the strawberries were preserved had not even been sealed, although the cork was driven in tightly. Mrs. Patterson left yesterday for Potsdam, N. Y., where she expects to spend the remainder of the winter with a sister.

A party of Barre young ladies, consisting of Misses Elizabeth Carson, Lillian Roberts, Gladys Bradford, Ruth Parker and Martha Smith, returned this morning from St. Johns, P. Q., where they were guests at a house party.

FALL & WINTER DRESS GOODS

Only 13 Days More of Our January Clearance Sale

There are lots of values here that you won't see again in any store for a long time, such as: Blankets and Outing Flannels, Wool and Silk Dress Goods. All goods, whether made of Cotton, Wool or Silk, have advanced very fast during the last few months. If the war should close to-morrow, there would not be time to get about a supply for spring of these goods at anywhere near old prices. There is sure to be a big price advance right along from now to March 1. Can you dodge these coming higher prices by buying now what you will need then? Then, again, you get now for a few days a reduction from old prices that you cannot get a little later. Now is a good time to do a little financial planning.

Blankets and Quilts

Don't wait another day on these goods if you are to buy this winter:

One lot of 10-4 Gray Blankets in this sale at only 49c per pair.

One lot of 70x80-inch Gray Blankets, good heavy weight. These are $1.50 values, now at $1.29 per yard.

One lot of very heavy extra-size 74x88-inch White Blankets. This sale at $2.29 per pair.

Here is another good trade in our better Blankets: One lot of California Wool Blankets, market value to-day $6.50. These in this sale at $4.98 per pair.

One lot of full-sized White Bed Quilts. These are $2.00 Quilts, at $1.29 each.

One lot of Satin Quilts, full size. These are $2.75 values. This one lot at $2.19 each.

All Blankets, Quilts and Comfortables in our store during this sale at a liberal discount.

Wool Dress Goods

Knowing, as you do, that Wool and Woolen Goods are away up and going higher, it will surprise you to hear that we are to give you a sale of Wool Dress Goods and sell them to you in this sale regardless of what they cost to manufacture.

Yes, we are to let you into our whole Dress Goods stock at a liberal discount on each and every piece.

All of our Serges now in this sale. You know the story on these—hard to get at any price—and we are letting you in on this lot at last season's mark-down prices—20 per cent. below market value.

In our Basement is one lot of $3.00 and $3.50 Cloakings at $1.50—less than half price to close.

Three grades of Short Lengths of All Wool Serges, mostly Black and dark colors: 40c Serges, 30c, 87c ones for 49c, and $1.00 ones for 69c per yard.

Do not lose sight of the following items, as they are some of the best in this sale: Royal Worcester Corsets, new model, a $1.50 value, this sale at 98c—less than we usually pay. Sheets and Pillow Slips are costing more. You can buy them at a liberal discount. When you can step up to a stock like ours and select nearly any article that you want and be handed back a part of the original selling price, it is a good time to buy what you need and to anticipate a few wants.

Outing Flannels

These prices are less than you will see them again for some time:

One lot of 25-inch Bleached 6c Outing Flannel, this sale at 4 1/2c per yard.

One lot of 10c Dark Outing Flannel in this sale at 7 1/2c per yard.
